DAY 5 MERIT MAKING IN CHIANG MAI

Discover the past and present of Chiang Mai, from gilded temples to contemporary art, on an exhilarating journey. Depart at 8:30 am and board a private Tuk Tuk to explore this vibrant city. Start with a visit to Warorot Market, a bustling hub of food, textiles, and homeware, where you can mix with locals and taste Thai snacks. Next, visit Sop Moei Arts, a non-profit supporting Karen hill tribes with hand-crafted textiles and home décor. Head to Wat Sri Suphan, a silver-covered temple built in the 1500s for local silversmiths. After exploring, enjoy lunch at Dash Teak House Restaurant, known for its Lanna cuisine. After lunch, stroll around Wat Chedi Luang, famous for its enormous chedi. Finally, visit Supachet Studio to see whimsical works inspired by elephants and rabbits, ending your day on a positive note.

DAY 6 DISCOVER LIFE LIKE A LOCAL

Experience authentic Thai hospitality on this half-day excursion, getting to know a local family in Hang Dong, south of Chiang Mai's old city. Visit a traditional Lanna residence, part of their heritage for over 150 years, and explore their house and rice barn, typical of northern Thai style.

Your friendly and knowledgeable hosts will share details of their life and culture, inviting any questions about the Lanna way of life. The main activity is a farm-to-table cooking extravaganza. Select ingredients from their plot, including fresh herbs, spices, mangoes, and bananas, while learning about their growing processes.

Participate in a culinary masterclass, creating northern Thai dishes from secret homemade recipes. Enjoy a delicious home-cooked feast with newfound friends, gaining valuable culinary skills and insight into the Lanna lifestyle.

DAY 7

FROM THAILAND TO THE KINGDOM OF CAMBODIA

Today, you will transfer from your Chiang Mai hotel to the airport and fly to Siem Reap. Upon arrival, your private driver will collect you and take you to your hotel in the heart of the town. In the evening, you will meet our local guide for a leisurely walking tour of Siem Reap.

Explore the charming streets, vibrant markets, and local landmarks, soaking in the town's unique atmosphere. The highlight of the evening will be a mouthwatering traditional dinner at a local restaurant, offering an unforgettable culinary experience. This day promises to be a perfect blend of travel, exploration, and delicious cuisine.

A MAGICAL SUNRISE BUILT IN HISTORY

There's nothing quite like greeting the dawn at Angkor Wat, one of the world's most iconic landmarks. Our specially curated sunrise tour is perfect for young couples seeking an unforgettable adventure in Cambodia. As you arrive at the temple complex, anticipation builds, almost as if the ancient stones are holding their breath for the sun's first rays. Your expert guide leads you to a prime viewing spot as the sky begins to lighten, casting hues of purple and orange over the temple's spires. As the sun ascends, it unveils Angkor Wat in a transformative light, bringing the carvings and structures to life. The moment feels almost spiritual, forging a connection with each other and the essence of a bygone civilization. This experience is more than a spectacular photo opportunity; it's a pause in time, leaving just the two of you amidst history and the breaking dawn, creating a cherished memory and the highlight of your Cambodian adventure.

DAY 9

EXPLORING KHMER COMMUNITIES

This morning, we'll start with a city tour, beginning at Psar Krom, a local market. Learn about the daily life and food of Cambodians as you walk through this vibrant wet and dry market. Next, we'll visit the largest Khmer handicraft center to discover Cambodia's rich craftsmanship in stone, wood, bamboo, leather, weaving, rattan, seagrass, water hyacinth, silk, cotton, painting, jewelry, and silver plating. Then, we'll delve into recent history at Wat Thmei, where you'll learn about the Khmer Rouge regime (1975-1979) and see displays of this tragic period, including leader biographies and remnants from the Killing Fields.

Afterward, we'll meet some unique characters at Apopo. Cambodia's countryside is littered with unexploded landmines, and APOPO uses specially trained rats to locate them. As an optional evening activity, you can experience the unique Phare Circus, which can be organized locally. This promises to be an unforgettable introduction to Siem Reap and Cambodia.
